

Marquess, Scott

From: Whitley, Christopher
Sent: Monday, August 11, 2014 8:58 AM
To: R7 Senior Staff;R7 RGAD-OPA
Subject: OPA Morning Clips - 8/11/14

St. Louis Post-Dispatch – Plans not complete for delayed barrier between burning and radioactive Bridgeton Landfills - 8/8/14 - Design plans for a barrier to block an underground fire at the Bridgeton Landfill from radioactive materials in the adjacent West Lake Landfill are still not finished, according to the Environmental Protection Agency. http://www.stltoday.com/lifestyles/health-med-fit/health/plans-not-complete-for-delayed-barrier-between-burning-and-radioactive/article_4a4ba915-4e5b-5980-9e1a-7d0448fe2120.html

KMOX Radio, St. Louis – EPA Puts Six-Month Delay on Firebreak Trench Project – 8/9/14 – It was supposed to start this summer, but now the Environmental Protection Agency says it will be six months or more before it begins digging a firebreak trench to separate the burning Bridgeton landfill from nearby nuclear waste. <http://stlouis.cbslocal.com/2014/08/08/epa-puts-six-month-delay-on-firebreak-trench-project/>

Columbia (Mo.) Daily Tribune – EPA wallows in corruption – 8/9/14 - The lofty motto of the Environmental Protection Agency is “protecting people and the environment.” In practice, however, EPA bureaucrats faithfully protect their own people and preserve the government’s cesspool of manipulation, cover-ups and cronyism. http://www.columbiatribune.com/opinion/columnists/epa-wallows-in-corruption/article_c4cfad00-e8a0-577b-aa44-6e4bb83aa54a.html

Kansas City Star – (blog) Blunt to focus on Obama in Missouri swing – 8/10/14 - Republican Sen. Roy Blunt plans a nine-stop tour through Missouri this week in which he’ll talk often about his belief that President Barack Obama has overreached his authority. <http://www.kansascity.com/news/local/news-columns-blogs/the-buzz/article1188215.html>

Southeast Missourian – Ozark Border members told electric rates could rise 50 percent – 8/11/14 - With looming emissions standards proposed by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the outlook is discouraging for Missouri’s electric cooperative customers, said David Klindt, vice president of the Association of Missouri Rural Electric Cooperatives, during an Ozark Border annual meeting last week. <http://www.semissourian.com/story/2108380.html>

Boone County Journal – Ashland says ‘yes’ to sewer bond – 8/8/14 - Ashland City Administrator Josh Hawkins interrupted his City Manager’s report on Tuesday evening during the Board of Aldermen meeting to tell the Aldermen that his schedule for Wednesday morning had changed. <http://www.bocojo.com/articles/2014/08/08/news/doc53e2428f09144078638381.txt>

Oskaloosa (Iowa) Herald – Oskaloosa receives $400,000 EPA grant – 8/10/14 - The Environmental Protection Agency has awarded the city of Oskaloosa a $400,000 Brownfield Assessment Grant to help eliminate waste and hazardous materials. <http://www.oskaloosa.com/local/x1927918296/Oskaloosa-receives-400-000-EPA-grant>

Inside EPA - Advocates Urge EPA Use Of Novel TSCA Authority To Ban Some TCE Uses – 8/8/14 - Environmentalists and process safety advocates are urging EPA to use existing authority under the Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA) to ban certain uses of the solvent trichloroethylene (TCE), arguing exposures pose health risks, that safer alternatives are available, and that EPA has waited decades to use TSCA authority to restrict chemical uses that pose unreasonable risks. <http://insideepa.com/201408082478997/EPA-Daily-News/Daily-News/advocates-urge-epa-use-of-novel-tsca-authority-to-ban-some-tce-uses/menu-id-95.html?s=dn>

Inside EPA - NAS Formaldehyde Report Could Bolster Stringent EPA Risk Analysis – 8/8/14 - The National Academy of Sciences (NAS) in a new report is backing conclusions by the National Toxicology Program (NTP) that formaldehyde is a human carcinogen, bolstering EPA efforts to advance its stalled assessment that could drive strict new rules for energy drilling, natural gas turbines and other emissions sources. <http://insideepa.com/201408082478924/EPA-Daily-News/Daily-News/nas-formaldehyde-report-could-bolster-stringent-epa-risk-analysis/menu-id-95.html?s=dn>

Inside EPA - Industry Seeks To Minimize 4th Circuit’s CWA Permit ‘Shield’ Ruling – 8/8/14 - Industry is pressing three appeals courts to limit the impact of a recent decision narrowing the “shield” that protects holders of Clean Water Act (CWA) permits from liability for their discharges, urging two courts to disregard the ruling as they consider still-pending suits over the shield and seeking en banc reversal of the decision itself. <http://insideepa.com/201408082478917/EPA-Daily-News/Daily-News/industry-seeks-to-minimize-4th-circuits-cwa-permit-shield-ruling/menu-id-95.html?s=dn>

Inside EPA Clean Energy Report - Western States Weigh Narrow Multi-State Pacts To Comply With EPA's ESPS – 8/8/14 - Several Western state officials say they are open to creating bilateral or regional agreements to help comply with EPA's landmark greenhouse gas (GHG) rule for existing power plants, with talks focused on narrow "shared accounting" of efficiency and renewable programs instead of a broad GHG trading program that many political leaders oppose. <http://cleanenergyreport.com/201408082478912/Clean-Energy-Report-Daily-News/News/western-states-weigh-narrow-multi-state-pacts-to-comply-with-epas-esps/menu-id-202.html?s=dn>

Inside EPA – Climate 'Trust' Plaintiffs To Seek Supreme Court Review – 8/8/14 - Youth plaintiffs plan to seek Supreme Court review of their novel litigation claiming the government has a public "trust" duty to reduce greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, following a unanimous U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit panel decision to dismiss the case after finding it lacked jurisdiction to hear the claim. <http://cleanenergyreport.com/201408082478995/Clean-Energy-Report-Blog/Clean-Energy-Wire/climate-trust-plaintiffs-to-seek-supreme-court-review/menu-id-204.html?s=dn>

Federal Regulations Adviser - Monday Morning Regulatory Review – 8/11/14: EPA Power Plant Litigation; NLRB Ratifies Administrative Actions; FCC Open Internet / Fast Lane Comments & Attorney General Habeas Corpus Certifications – 8/11/14 - The dog days of summer mean that this column is filled with many odds and few ends. In new litigation, a dozen states sued the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) claiming that the agency lacks authority to issue a rule that it has not yet been issued. <http://www.fedregsadvisor.com/2014/08/11/monday-morning-regulatory-review-81114-epa-power-plant-litigation-nlr-ratifies-administrative-actions-fcc-open-internet-fast-lane-comments-attorney-general-habeas-corpus-certifica/>

Newszap.com – EPA, landowners at odds over wetlands interpretation – 8/9/14 - When is a ditch just a ditch? And when is a plot of woodland without a drop of visible water actually a "water of the U.S."? <http://delaware.newspap.com/centraldelaware/134162-70/epa-landowners-at-odds-over-wetland-interpretation>

Hutchinson (Kan.) Daily News – Pretty Prairie hires attorney over water issue – 8/8/14 - The Pretty Prairie City Council hired an attorney to seek more time from environmental regulatory agencies for addressing high nitrates in the drinking water. At the same, the council on Monday continued planning for a potential ion exchange water treatment system that could cost more than $2 million. http://www.hutchnews.com/news/local_state_news/pretty-prairie-hires-attorney-over-water-issue/article_374dcc40-3058-5900-9fdc-4a0317b523e2.html

Salina (Kan.) Post – Kan. Community tries to tackle water issues – 8/8/14 - A south-central Kansas community where nitrate levels in the water supply have long exceeded federal standards is working to address the contamination. The Pretty Prairie City Council has hired an attorney in order to gain more time from environmental regulatory agencies to address the high nitrate levels in the drinking water. <http://salinapost.com/2014/08/09/kan-community-tries-to-tackle-water-issues/>

Huffington Post – Climate Change This Week: Mega Methane, Tidal Power, and More – 8/11/14 - Today, the Earth got a little hotter, and a little more crowded. http://www.huffingtonpost.com/mary-ellen-harte/climate-change-this-week_b_5667183.html

Chris Whitley

Public Affairs Specialist

U.S. EPA Region 7 Office of Public Affairs

11201 Renner Boulevard

Lenexa, KS 66219

913-551-7394